Tutoring Experience

I began tutoring four years ago and have since supported students in mastering GCSE Science, IGCSE Chemistry, and A-Level Biology. My experience spans working with students across France and Europe, helping them achieve success in their academic goals while building confidence in their abilities.

Additionally, I've worked extensively with students preparing for AQA, Edexcel, and OCR examinations. From simplifying complex scientific concepts to refining exam-specific strategies, I have helped students excel in their coursework and develop a solid understanding of the core principles of science.
