Tutoring Experience

With two decades in tutoring, I have guided students through GCSE and A-Level Science, focusing on Physics, alongside Biology and Chemistry. I am well-versed in exam boards like Edexcel and Cambridge, customising lessons to meet curriculum demands and exam standards. My experience spans classroom and individual tutoring, where I provide personalised support to achieve academic goals. I've developed unique resources to enhance student engagement, and many of my students have consistently attained top grades, with several progressing to renowned universities. My teaching emphasises rigorous practice, structured guidance, and building confidence for exam readiness.
